

Wildewood Hole-in-One Club Rules and Regulations

Membership

Open to all golf members of Wildewood. There is no charge to join, but the member must declare free membership at least one full day before the occurrence of a hole in one.

Qualifications

- They, the Hole-in-One Club member, must be involved in at least a nine hole round; a few practice holes do not qualify. (Sorry, taking target practice on your favorite par 3 with your shag bag one night doesn't count). see below for USGA recommendations.
- They must be playing with at least one witness. see below for USGA recommendations.
- They must be playing from tees that are normally played.
- The USGA® recommends that a hole-in-one be considered valid:
 - If the player is playing one ball; a hole-in-one made in a practice round in which the player is playing two or more balls should not be acceptable.
 - If made during a round of at least nine holes, except that a hole-in-one made during a match should be acceptable even if the match ends before the stipulated round is completed.
 - If made at a hole with a temporary tee and/or putting green in use, even if the Committee did not specifically define the teeing ground with tee-markers; the length of the hole at the time should be stated on any certificate.
 - If attested by someone acceptable to the Committee.

Rewards

They will receive credit for the amount generated by the billing of all the members of the Hole-in-One Club. The amount per member is fixed at $10.00 for each Hole-In-One made by the members of the club. The proceeds will be applied to the credit account on the first day of the second month after the achievement. This is to allow time for the club to collect the funds from the members of the Hole-In-One Club.

Beverages are certainly at the discretion of the Hole-in-One Club member. The credit awarded to the member can be used in the Pro Shop for merchandise or a cart rental, and/or for food and beverage charges.

Costs

As stated, when the Ace occurs, the other members of the club will be billed $10.00 on that month, Hopefully, some members will be among those helping the lucky person celebrate.
